COSTUMES

Costumes play a big part of Halloween in some parts of the United States. In fact, people all over the world throughout history have worn costumes to mark special occasions.

- Samurai warriors, warlords in feudal Japan, wore a warrior's costume as a sign of rank.
- Hindus in India wear a white funeral costume, because Hindus consider white a color of mourning.
- The celebratory costume worn by a Mexican girl at a quince años (kēn'se ä'nyōs), honoring her fifteenth birthday, is often very formal.

Look at the pictures and name the kind of costume being worn.
